

Real World Group

Develop Outstanding Teams

High Performing Team 360

Real World Group's High Performing Team 360 provides a highly effective and refreshingly different way to develop your teams.

Rather than relying on personality-based self-assessment and introspection, it gathers a wide range of feedback to enable team members as a collective to assess their behaviours, processes and performance.

This feedback is gathered based on contemporary understanding of how high-performing teams operate.

Benefits of the High Performing Team 360

Explores both behaviours & attitudes alongside processes & competencies

Focuses attention on team strengths as well as any development needs

Simply compares team perspectives on their effectiveness with stakeholder feedback

Highlights levels of team wellbeing & morale & how they can be enhanced

Illustrates how well the team enables other teams as part of the interdependent system

Uncovers ways the team's line manager can release greater performance

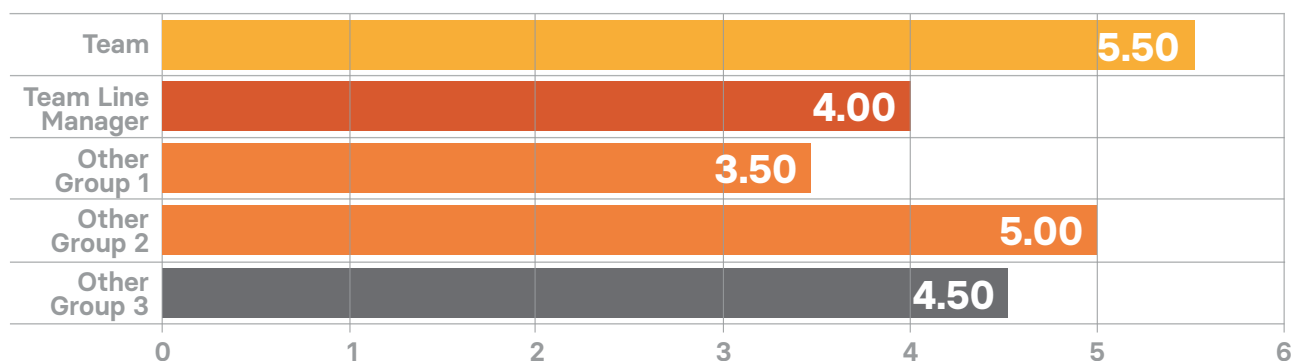

The High Performing Team 360 is also available in the Line Manager Version which provides the team's Line Manager with a separate report which explores their leadership of the team in more depth.

High Performing Team 360 Dimensions

Example High Performing Team 360 graph

Innovation & Improvement - Members of our team are open to trying new ways of delivering services.

For more information please contact your Real World Group Accredited coach or visit our website <https://realworld-group.com/high-performing-team-360/>